Court of Appeals to Provide Remote Viewing of High Profile Cases

SAN FRANCISCO – The United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit will provide for remote viewing of oral arguments next week in two cases that have generated significant public interest.

United States v. Loughner, Case 11-10339, will be heard August 30, 2011, beginning at 2 p.m. in Courtroom One of the James R. Browning U.S. Courthouse, 95 7th Street, San Francisco, California. The case involves the involuntary medication of Jared Lee Loughner, the accused gunman in the mass shooting earlier this year in Tucson, Arizona, who is currently being held in a federal prison. The panel hearing the case consists of Circuit Judges Marsha S. Berzon of San Francisco and Jay S. Bybee of Las Vegas and Senior Circuit Judge J. Clifford Wallace of San Diego. A live video and audio feed from the proceeding in San Francisco will be delivered via electronically secure means to the following federal courthouses:
